

AUSCI Blitz

November 5th ' 2008

*Greetings TROJANS !

On this AUSCI Blitz premier edition, you'll be delivered a glance review from our latest Speaker Series forum with Dr. John Ng, an author and a Leadership specialist, who presented his Dim Sum Leadership lecture to the USC Alums last night.

Quoting from the attendance, overall evaluation of the event was rated GOOD and at some points brought Benefit of sharing knowledge.

3 aspects of evaluation being asked were classified into :

- * Topic
- * Speaker performance
- * Benefit of sharing knowledge

Given to the good response, AUSCI is even more encouraged and is on the roll to keep this going. However, we realize it would not be a touch down without all of you Trojans join hands and supporting this.

So, allow us to hear from you. By giving us your idea, suggestion, constructive critics, and we'll see you around.

FIGHT ON !
